I'm in serious need of a set of Crupi Nuts. Theyre Effing hard to find these days. D'yall gottem?

The next thing I need is a good star chart so I can navigate while out ridin' the cuntryside at knight.

You guys ever use Goldfish to fish with? I'm talkin' about those cheesy snacks, not the real fish.

And, do you guys carry Ninja Sparring Gear?

I can't wait till April 20, how about yoo?

I heard that in England, when yer born, yer given just one spoon. And if you lose that spoon you could starve to death, unless someone wills you their spoon; and there are spoon Millionaires. That's just what I heard.

Hey, by the way, do you guys fix lawn mowers?

I will ask about the Crupi.

Lawarence Photo has some nice star charts.

We eat the fish, the snacks, not the real ones.

You should look at www.springfieldninja.com

April 19th is a tough wait as well.

Dont listen to the English, they tell stories.

We fix lawns, but not mowers.
